Forgive

Recently, in one of our Sunday morning worship services, I taught on the importance of forgiveness and spoke about a common lie that many people believe, that there are some people that we don't have to forgive. Of course Jesus never said that, but on the contrary, He did say that we must forgive everyone, that if we expect to be forgiven by God of our sins, we must be willing to forgive the sins that have been committed against us. Among the many challenges of the COVID-19 Pandemic, are the relational challenges that so many of us have experienced. Throughout the pandemic, Satan has attacked relationships within the Body of Christ and damaged relationships within families and marriages. Now more than ever, we must be committed to the teaching of Jesus, to be willing to forgive. Yes, forgiveness is difficult and is often a process that can take a considerable amount of time, but it is a process that as followers of Christ, we cannot afford to ignore or delay. No matter who you may be holding a grudge against or how you are allowing bitterness to take root inside of you, now is the time to begin the process of forgiving, so that you too can be forgiven and experience healing and wholeness.

An article that I read recently, suggested five Biblical action steps that we must take, in order to have the proper attitude and demeanor that will allow us to forgive others, as Jesus has forgiven us:

1. WE LOVE EVEN OUR WORST CRITICS. This means to love with the intellect, not necessarily the emotions. In other words, we do the right thing, even if we don't feel like doing it.

2. WE FORGIVE OFFENSES FROM THE HEART. Matthew 18:35

3. WE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE OFFENDED US. Matthew 5:44

4. WE FIND WAYS TO DO GOOD TO AND FOR THEM. Luke 6:35-36

5. WE DO NOT SEEK REVENGE. Romans 12:17-21

Forgiven,

Chad
