Did You Know?

Did you know that WWCC is making an impact and having significant influence in the Name of our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ, locally, in our own community, and globally, around the world? I hope you already knew this and are among the many who are helping to make it happen, through the generous giving of your offerings. Thank you to each and everyone of you, for your generosity, in making a difference by shining the light and sharing the message of Jesus, with people who need help and hope.

Did you know that our mission partners, that your generosity helps to support, regularly sends us updates and/or newsletters informing us of the Kingdom work that they're doing and how our partnership is continuing to make a positive difference? If you didn't know this, you may also not know that there is a Missions Bulletin Board in the Fellowship Hall, close to the kitchen, where we post this very important missions information. We invite and encourage you to stop by there at any time and check out what these wonderful missions minded organizations and individuals are doing. While you're there, you might also want to pause for a moment and pray for these missionaries and missions organizations. I know that they could use your prayers, at least as much, as they need our financial support.

Thankful For Missions Minded People,

Chad
